Section 3. Vacancy

Section 4. Removal

The MRSC, in exercise of its right to (a) control its internal affairs, (b) exercise its right of free association, and (c) be the sole judge of the qualifications of its members, and while balancing the citizens' right to effective suffrage, may remove one of its members only upon compliance and completion of the following procedures:

- a. Any five duly elected and seated members of the MRSC may move by notarized writing to remove a member. The writing, in form of a complaint, shall state the reasons for the removal, and may include appropriate attachments. The writing shall state that the complaint is based on the movants' due investigation of the matter and either their personal knowledge of the material or their reasonably formed belief in the facts relevant to the complaint. The members seeking removal shall submit their complaint to the State Chairman. The State Chairman shall within five (5) business days deliver copies of the complaint and attachments to the members of the Executive Committee.
- b. Specific actions complained of may include, but shall not be limited to, information that the member has missed four consecutive meetings of the MRSC without valid excuse or proxy, that any court of competent jurisdiction has found that the member has engaged in an act of moral turpitude, that the member has acted in a manner contrary to the objectives of the MRSC as defined in the Bylaws of the MRSC, or that the member has prevented the conduct of MRSC business in an orderly manner. In any case, the movants must state that in their prudent judgment the actions complained of meet the following standard: that the actions would cause a loss of confidence by the public in the proper functioning of the committee as a statutorily functioning body, and/or that the actions complained of would negatively affect the State Committee's ability to pursue the objectives of the State Committee as stated in the Bylaws.
- c. The Executive Committee shall engage in a prompt summary investigation of the facts alleged in the complaint. The Executive Committee shall then determine whether the complaint appears to have a reasonable basis in fact and if the allegations would warrant removal. The standards for removal are outlined in (b) above. The Executive Committee may consider other - relevant factors. Upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Committee in support of the complaint, the complaint shall be referred to the MRSC for final resolution. If the Executive Committee fails to achieve a two-thirds (2/3) vote in support of the complaint, the motion shall have failed and the matter shall be deemed concluded with the member continuing to hold his or her seat. The Executive Committee may, but need not, issue a written statement with the reasons for its actions. The Executive Committee shall not act in an illegal discriminatory manner.

- d. Upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Committee in support of the complaint, the Executive Committee shall set the motion for removal for hearing at the next regular or special meeting of the MRSC, but with a minimum of thirty (30) days notice. The Executive Committee shall also promptly cause to be sent to all members of the MRSC a copy of the movants' original complaint, a copy of the record of votes of the Executive Committee on the complaint, and a notice of a hearing on the complaint. These shall be sent to the last known address of the member subject to the complaint both by certified mail and by regular mail. The notice will state that the member will have an opportunity to be heard and to have counsel. No allegation of non-receipt of the documents by any member, including the member subject to the motion, shall cause delay of the hearing.
  - e. The Executive Committee shall appoint a member or members to present the motion for removal. The MRSC shall hear the motion for removal. The member subject to the motion shall have the opportunity to be heard and to have counsel. The MRSC shall consider all reasonably relevant factors in its deliberations.
  - f. After appropriate debate, the MRSC will vote on the motion for removal. The standards for removal are outlined in (b) above. A positive vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all state committee members voting thereon shall cause removal of the member immediately and a vacancy shall exist on the MRSC. If the motion fails to obtain a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the duly elected members of the MRSC for removal, the motion shall have failed, the matter shall be deemed concluded, and the member shall continue in his or her seat. The State Committee shall not act in an illegal discriminatory manner.
